St. James's, May 11.

THE following Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common Council aſſembled, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Sir Charles Turner; being introduced by the Right Hon. Sir Robert Walpole: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE are engaged by all the Motives of Duty and Gratitude, and every Sentiment which regards the publick Welfare, moſt humbly to intreat your Majeſty's Permiſſion to congratulate your Majeſty upon the happy Nuptials of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales with a Princeſs of the illuſtrious Houſe of Saxe Gotha.

This glorious Event muſt give the greateſt Pleaſure to a brave and happy People, who are nearly concern'd in every Circumſtance of his Royal Highneſs's Life: And as the Happineſs of your Majeſty's Subjects, and the Proſperity of your Royal Family, are inſeparable, we do with the higheſt Satisfaction obſerve all your Meaſures to be ſuch, as tend to the Support of the one, and the Glory of the other.

This Marriage being concerted by your Majeſty for the Preſervation of the Proteſtant Religion, and the Enjoyment of civil Liberty, our warmeſt Wiſhes are, that his Royal Highneſs may poſſeſs all the Happineſs which that State and ſo amiable and virtuous a Princeſs can give him.

That your Majeſty may long reign over an obedient and loyal People, ſenſible of the Happineſs they enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and paternal Government; and that your Majeſty's Subjects may unanimouſly rejoice in the preſent happy Conjuncture of Affairs, brought about by the Weight of your Majeſty's Mediation, and the Wiſdom and Steadineſs of your Councils.

That her moſt ſacred Majeſty may long continue the Ornament of your Throne, and a Pattern for her Royal Highneſs to copy after in all the Relations ſhe may ſtand in to the Publick, as her Majeſty now is for your Subjects in all the Duties of private Life; and that a numerous Progeny may be the Conſequence of this happy Alliance; that future Ages may be bleſſed with Princes, able as your Majeſty to preſerve the Balance of Power in Europe, and thereby ſecure a laſting Happineſs to lateſt Poſterity, are,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty, the ſincere Wiſhes of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and obedient Subjects.

Given under our common Seal this Eighth Day of May, 1736.

Petersbourg, April 17, N. S. We have Advice, that Felt Marſhal Munich was advanced to Aſoph, and had already taken, with the Loſs only of two or three Soldiers and very few Coſſacks, three little Forts or Towers ſituate about an Engliſh Mile from that Town, in one of which there were 20 Guns: That he had actually inveſted Aſoph on all Sides, and deſign'd to leave about 30000 regular Troops and ſome Coſſacks, who will attack the Town as ſoon as their Artillery arrives; and that the Felt Marſhal intended to march himſelf immediately to the Crimea with a very conſiderable Army. The Perſian Ambaſſadour made a very magnificent Entry into this Town laſt Thurſday: The Guns of the Admiralty were fired when he came near it.

Berlin, May 12, N. S. On Thurſday laſt the King, Queen, and the reſt of the Royal Family, came to Town. The French Miniſter is making great Preparations for the Reception of King Staniſlaus, who is expected here on the 16th Inſtant in the Afternoon.

Hambourg, May 15, N. S. On the 2d Inſtant the King of Denmark ſet out from Fredericksberg for Holſtein, and his Majeſty having reviewed his Troops at the ſeveral Stations near the Road in Zealand, Fuhnen, Jutland, and Holſtein, is now advanced as far as Gottorp; and propoſes to be at Altena To-morrow.

Dublin, May 4.

Yeſterday on the News of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales's Marriage with her Highneſs the Princeſs Auguſta of Saxe-Gotha, the Flag was diſplay'd at the Caſtle, and the great Guns were fired at the Baracks, and anſwered by Vollies from the Regiments in Garriſon, which were drawn out for that Pur-
